Types of cookies

Cookies can be classified by its lifespan and the domain to which they belong. By lifespan, a cookie is either a:

- session cookie which is erased when the user closes the browser
- persistent cookie which remains on the user's computer/device for a pre-defined period of time.

As for the domain to which it belongs, there are either:

- first-party cookies which are set by the web server of the visited page and share the same domain
- third-party cookies stored by a different domain to the visited page's domain. This can happen when the webpage references a file, such as JavaScript, located outside its domain.
